

Always the Same Answer!

The flow chart shown below was given by one of my year eight pupils in 2008. The sequence of arithmetic operations always gives the same result independent of the input number chosen. You may like to see what happens if you input negative numbers, fractional or decimal numbers.

